

CM18 Cash Recycler

Proven, reliable performance

The graceful lines of the CM18 are indicative of the level of detail that our Italian designers placed in the engineering of this modern marvel. The CM18 automates cash processes, by accepting, authenticating and storing banknotes in a secure environment.

By removing the need to count and verify currency, employees can now dedicate their attention to the customer—using technology to provide a better overall experience.

Scalable capacity

Automate cash-out transactions

Provide faster employee/customer service

Take the worry out of cash handling

Reduce shrink and theft
